INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO

What the People of El Verano are Doing as Told by Our Weekly Reporter

R. E. Mullen made a pleasure trip to San Francisco Sunday.

Mr. F. A. Riser was a passenger on Saturday morning's train for Guinda.

Mayor Cummings of Sonoma passed through here Sunday.

Robt. Poppe of Sonoma passed through here Monday en route to Santa Rosa.

L. L. Lewis went to the county seat Tuesday to transact business pertaining to his water system.

Postmaster Mullen is busy cleaning up and making many improvements around his business premises.

Col. Matthew Murphy, capatalist, has arrived from San Francisco and will pass the summer months in his "Lone Star Cottage."

John L. Gist, deputy health officer, was here last week looking after the sanitary conditions of different summer resorts, which must come up to the requirements of the law in the future

A. H. Kemp, the scholarly and popular principal of our school, has left here for Chico, where he will pass his vacation, and we hope to see him back again to resume his duties with renewed energy.

One of the amusing spectacles in El Verano is to note the efforts of a few of our green striplings posing as statues at the postoffice entrance on the arrival of the mails trying to attract the attention of "ye Summer Girl."

The El Verano baseball team was in Santa Rosa last Sunday and went down to defeat before the Rosa City nine. Since their return the home team boys have been very quiet and we have been unable to find out much about the game, and mum appears to be the word with them.

Leo Baines was observed on the water wagon Saturday, accompanying A. C. Chance on his sprinkling rounds. He took in the town and was a keen observer of the summer girls who are now very much in evidence here. Leo is seriously considering giving up his red benzine joy-rider for the town's water wagon.

Our energetic poundmaster is now almost entirely recovered from the exciting experience he underwent lately in trying to tow two fiery mustangs at the tail end of his cart to the pound. The equines did not like the looks of things and suddenly pulling back upset the cart. After a rather strenuous struggle the official finally landed his quarry in the corral.

Mr. Sam Rainey, formerly of this place but now residing in San Francisco, was badly hurt in that city one day last week. Mr. Rainey, who is an electrician, suffered a fall and injured his foot, which will lay him up for several months. Mrs. Rainey, who was visiting at the C. F. Carmer residence here at the time of the accident, immediately left for her husband's bedside. The injured man is a son-in-law of C. F. Carmer.

Our three candidates for Deputy Constable are beginning to show signs of worry at the delay of Constable Ryan in appointing a deputy here. A dark horse may get the plum 'tis feared. In which event there would be weeping and wailing among the blacksmiths, carpenters and teamsters of this burg. Get a move on, Joe, before they collapse.

Real estate agent Tom Baines has sold 60 feet fronting on First street and 50 feet frontage on Grove street adjoining his garage, to a Hebrew capitalist from San Francisco. On the former is to be erected an up-to-date business structure and on ths latter a palatial residence.

The corpulent Mayor of Boyes Springs blew over here early Sunday morning looking for some motor cars that he claimed had gone astray between Schellville Junction and his berg. He failed, however, to glean any information as to their whereabouts.

Master George Weaver has returned home much improved in health after passing a few weeks in the classic regions around Mt. Pisgah, where he had hied himself to reduce his weight by exercising in the block quarries in that region.

A fairly good crowd of people have arrived at our hotels and the prospects are beginning to look rosy. The weather conditions were against us for some time past, but from now on things will be humming.

Quite a wave of excitement swept over this side of the creek last week and the population, one and all, sat up and began to take notice when "Duhring's Letter" arrived containing some uncalled for criticisms on the management of the two lines of railroads which are so ably operated through this valley. Those roads have made this valley, the scribe's opinion to the contrary notwitstanding. The two newspapers printed and published in Sonoma city have also done their share toward bringing people here during the summer months and in developing the valley. "Cinderella" has indeed developed an "amusing cuss" and the wonder, in this neck of woods continues to grow how one small head can carry all he knows about the management of railroads. We wonder, and we wonder why some of the leading railroads of these United States have not long since discovered this bright particular star and secured his brilliant talents as a general manager of their system. Oh, you bilious pencil-pusher! don't be so ungrateful to this side of the valley that has done so much for your business. Better be wise in time. Change the name of your advertising screed to "The Monthly Wail," go way back and sit down and "Watch El Verano Grow."

MAJOR JOHN BROWN PASSES AWAY

He Was a Pioneer and Held the Office of Justice of the Peace in Santa Rosa for Forty Years

Major John Brown, pioneer resident of Sonoma county, a veteran of the Mexican and Indian wars and for over forty years a Justice of the Peace in Santa Rosa, is dead. He passed away last Saturday night at the old soldier's home in Yountville, Napa county, at the advanced age of 84 years

Major Brown, who acquired his title in the United States army in battling for his country in his younger days, was a gentleman of the old school and for many years was honored and respected by the people of Sonoma county for his true worth as a scholer and a soldier.

He held the office of Justice of the Peace for forty consecutive years in the city of Santa Rosa, and when the infirmities of old age seized upon him a number of years ago, he resigned the office and removed to the Veterans' Home at Yountville to spend the remainder of his days with his old comrades in arms.

The deceased is survived by his wife and four children, F. Brown of Santa Rosa, Mrs. Geo. W. Libby, Neal S. Brown and Wade Brown.

Major Brown was a native of Tennessee, and came to California by ox-team in 1849.

His funeral took place in Santa Rosa on Monday.

Sonoma Still Unrepre ented on the Board of Education

At a meeting of the Supervisors on Friday afternoon of last week O. M. Staten and W. M. Cunningham were re-appointed members of the Sonoma County Board of Education. Prof. Jesse Prestwood, principal of the Sonoma grammar school, was the unanimous choice of the people in this section of the county for a member of the Board, and althrough Supervisors Hart and King favored him the majority of the Supervisors voted to reappoint Staten and Cunningham. This was hardly a fair deal for the Sonoma people, who for once in their lives had agreed on a candidate for the position in the hopes of getting recognition. But their good resolutions in this respect have gone for naguht.

We are paying one cent under the San Francisco quotations. This is the same price paid in Petaluma. Bring us your eggs.

Club Women's Franchise League to be Organized Here

Mrs. Horace Coffin of San Francisco was in town last Monday to establish a branch here of the Club Woman's Franchise League. About twenty-five ladies met her at the home of Mrs. Duhring, and Mrs. G. H. Hotz was appointed a Vice-President of the League and its Sonoma representative.

Mrs. Coffin is an ardent worker and told much of the campaign work now being carried on in San Francisco. Headquarters for the League are on the eighth floor of the St. Francis Hotel, where club women are gladly welcomed.

In Marin county Congressman and Mrs. William Kent are directing the work, and during this past week rousing meetings have been held in seven different towns.

The Hay Market

The condition of the hay market for the week ending June 13th, as reported by Somers & Co., remains about the same as last week. They say:

"Receipts of hay during the past week have amounted to 2730 tons, somewhat less than the week previous, but not nearly enough decrease to relieve the situation, which continuest extremly quiet and without any immediate prospect of improvement. The market is right now about as quiet as we have seen it for a very long time. No one takes any interest in hay except receivers, who have to be very energetic in order to dispose of their receipts, and even then the prices are anything put satisfactory.

"As the season progresses more new hay is ready for market, but there is very little being purchased, and practically none shipped to San Francisco with the exception of a little first cutting alfalfa. In some districts farmers are very firm in their ideas of prices, but in other districts growers are offering to sell at fairly reasonable prices. So much money was lost by storing and holding their hay last season and two years ago, that may have come to the conclusion that it is more profttable to sell in harvest time than to try and speculate with their crop."

El Verano Teacher Resigns

Miss Carlotta McMinn, for a number of years teacher of the El Verano district school, has tendered her resignation to the trustees of the district. The vacancy has not yet been filled but her successor will be chosen before the summer vacation is ended.

AUTO ACCIDENT NEAR GLEN ELLEN

Machine Skids While Crossing a Small Bridge and Brings up in Bed of Creek With its Two Occupants

While Frank Thompson and Ivan McAllister of Petaluma were speeding up the valley in an automobile Sunday they had a narrow escape from being killed. In crossing a small bridge on the county road near Glen Ellen the machine skidded and toppled over into the the creek below. McAllister was hurled clear of the machine and escaped unhurt. Thompson, however, was not so fortunate and was pinioned beneath the auto, but in such a manner as to escape with cuts and abrasions, which were both numerous and painful. His companion went to his rescue and extricated him from beneath the auto. The machine was badly damagad and attracted much attention as it lay piled up in the creek bottom. It was subsequently lifted into the road and towed to Petaluma for repairs.

The batteries for the home team are Nesse and Alselmi, and those for the Elbees are Brown and Rock.

The second game will be between the Sonoma Giants and the Arrows of Oakland. Williams and Davis will be the batteries for the Oaklanders and Greeley, Jansen and Poppe for the Sonoma team. Petaluma "Reformers" Pass Up a Depleted Treasury to Their Successors

THE new City Council of Petaluma which was inducted into office the fore part of the present month has been confronted with a depleted treasury which had been passed up to them by a hypocritical City Council of "reformers" who got the people of that city to elect them to office two years ago by promising to improve the conditions of that city morally, commercially and otherwise. As a preliminary, the reformers forthwith proceeded to close up the saloons on Sundays, presumable to improve its moral condition, but which, in the opinion of many good citizens over that way, was done in a spirit of meanness and revenge. This stupid blunder on their part did a deal of harm to the business interests of that city while it reformed nothing. As a matter of course, the old City Council failed to make good and the people soon realized their mistake in electing some of its members to office. However, they had to bide their time. That time came after a lapse of nearly two years at the recent municipal election in that city when the nrrrow-minded "reformers" were retired and their places filled wth a less revengeful set of men.

Now comes the denouement. With a depleted treasury handed down by the "reform" Council to its successors, Petaluma will be compelled to give up all street sprinkling, water for its public parks, the lighting of its streets and all street work until such a time as the new City Councal may undo the mischief wrought by its calamity howling, hypocritical predecessors.

A Law for the Benefit of Secret Societies

The recent Legislature passed many new laws that are now coming to light. Among these is an Act which is of interest to unincorporated benevolent and fraternal societies. The Act provides among other things as follows.

"All unincorporated benevolent or fraternal societies or associations are and every lodge or branch of such society or association is hereby authorized and empowered, with out incorporation, to purchase receive, own, hold, mortgage, manage and sell all such real estate and other property as may be necessary for the business purposes and objects of the said society or association or lodge or brauch, subject to the laws and regulations of said society or association or lodge or branch and of the grand lodge thereof and also to take and receive by will or deed all property not so necessary, and to hold the same until disposed of within a period of ten years from the acquisition thereof provided that all conveyances transferring or in any manner affecting the title to real estate owned or held by said society or association shall be executed by its presiding officer and recording secretary under its seal after resolution duly adopted by said society or association authorizing such conveyance."

The Mayor Appoints Fourth of July Parade Committee

It having been decided at the mass meeting of citizens held in the City Hall on Monday night last to have a grand parade here on the Fourth in conjunction with the celebration to be held in the Old Plaza under the auspices of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, the following citizens have been appointed by Mayor Cummings to serve as a parade committe: H. F. Bates, chairman; Will F. Clewe, Dr. W. B. Hays, G. H. Hotz, M. S. Beyers, Will Werner, J. P. Weems, L. S. Simmons, Henry Watters and Chas. Newman.

Entertainment For the Benefit of St. Mary's Church

Saturday evening, June 24th, will be a most enjoyable one at Glen Ellen. A beautiful entertainment will be given for the benefit of St. Mary's church at Mervyn Hall. A large and varied program will be rendered. The Joseph P. Kelleher dancing class, San Francisco, has promised several numbers. All the ladies of Glen Ellen are working hard for its success and promise a delightful evening to all. Splendid music and delicious refreshments. Don't forget the date, June 24th.

The Garniss Ranch to be Sold

In pursuance of an order of the Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco the Garniss ranch located in the northwestern suburbs of town, embracing about sixty acers of land, will be sold to the highest cash bidder at the office of Stetson & Koford, attorneys at law, Oakland.

Bids will be received up to June 26th. The owner of the property Mrs. Barbara A. Garniss went insane years ago, and as her case is hopeless the property will be disposed of by her guardian, George Huestes.

Band Dance Tonight.

The Sonoma Valley Band will give its annual dance in Union Hall this (Saturday) evening. The net proceeds will be used toward paying for the new uniforms of the band boys, which they will wear for the first time in the parade here on July 4th. There should be a large turn-out of our people tonight as the band boys are deserving of encouragement. They have volunteered their services to the Woman's Club on July 4th, and one good turn deserves another.

VINEBURG NEWS AND PERSONALS

"Easy Jim" Tells of the Week's Happenings in His Section

Hay-making is in full swing down this way.

Mr. Englund is busy erecting a dwelling adjoining Anderson's blacksmith shop on Villa avenue.

Many visitors from the cities around the bay are arriving here daily for a vacation in the country.

His honor, the Mayor, is now enjoying good health since the doctor advised him to take the rest cure, and he will shortly resume his official duties.

Mrs. L. de Lew of San Francisco and three children are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Cotterell at her home on the Hyde tract. They will remain for several weeks.

Vineburg is getting a move on lately and everything is a-booming down this way. Shipments of wine, fruit, eggs and other produce keeps station agent Grove Rubke busy, but he is always accommodating and polite just the same.

Fred. Batto and family, including Miss Adele Andrieux, were the guests of Capt. Houts, the well-known automobile dealer of Santa Rosa, last Sunday. A flying trip was made to Napa in a swell up-to-date Overland machine and the trip was an enjoyable one.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Durx, residing on the Hyde tract, accompanied by Mr. William Doctor, went to San Francisco on last Saturday morning to attend the wedding of Miss Mary Durx, sister of Mr. Durx, which took place in that city the same evening. The lucky groom was Mr. Richard Good of Rochester, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Durx returned to their Vineburg home Sunday evening and report having had a splendid time.

LARGE RANCHES BEING CUT UP

Latest Inducement for Settlement Here is Subdiving the Gorden Ranch into Five and Ten Acre Tracts

One by one the large ranches in the near vicinity of this city are giving way to small farms of from five to twenty acres. This has had a tendency to increase the population and wealth of the valley the past few years to an extent little dreamed of less than a decade ago.

The latest of the large holdings in this vicinity to be subdivided into five and ten acre tracts is the Gorden ranch off Broadway, one-half mile from town. The Baker tract, which adjoins it, has now been disposed of by the real estate firm of John McGraw & Co. of San Francisco assisted by the local representative, O. R. Wagner, and a tract of land which formerly supported but one family now boasts of from ten to twelve families who have invested in that tract.

The throwing open of the Gorden tract to the small farmer offers a splendid opportunity for investment to actual settlers. The soil is well adapted for small farming and poultry raising and is accessible to two lines of railroad. With the advent of a motor car service the small farms which are now dotting this valley in every direction will be enchanced in value two-fold.

Sonoma Valley is no longer at a standstill and is forging right ahead in population and wealth. It offers a good field for the poultry raiser and small farmer. As a place of refuge for the invalid and health seeker it has no peer in all California, and thanks to the liberal advertising of our two railroads—the Southern Pacific and Northwestern Pacific—these advantages are being made known to the outer world to the profit and and advantage of those that are already here and those who are to come.

STEALING A HORSE.

A Bold Afghan Robber Who Had a Sense of Humor.

An East Indian officer, writing of life in Peshawur in the early seventies of the last century, relates the following:

The medical officer of my regiment was informed one night that a valuable and favorite Arab steed of his had been stolen. Over the border, gone forever, he never expected to see his horse again, but next day, much to his surprise, there came to him a bearded ruffian riding bare backed the stolen steed.

He confessed that he had taken the animal, but, learning that it was the property of a hakim (physician), had brought it back. The horse had been tethered in line with others, with men, women and children sleeping in the open about them.

"How did you manage it?" asked the doctor.

"If the sahib will give the necessary order," he said, "I will show him."

The entire scene was reproduced, even to the night watchman asleep in a corner. Noiselessly the Afghan crawled toward the Arab, treading snakelike through the prostrate forms to where it was standing at the end of the row. Softly hissing to attract the animal's attention without causing alarm, he gently raised himself with arm extended.

In his open palm were some lumps of goor (native sugar), beloved of horses, and while the Arab was enjoying these the man was caressing him with the other hand, whence suspended a watering bridle taken from his wallet. Quickly this was adjusted, and then, stroking soothingly, the robber passed his hand over the animal's back and down the hind quarters. Swiftly the heel ropes were unhitched, then the head gear released, and with a bound he was astride and away, his right hand backward flung, shouting triumphantly as he passed, "Thus was it done!"

The joke was that he never came back! A double restitution would have been too much of a wrench.

A MAN'S WHISKERS.

They Should Not Be Renovated With the Shoebrush.

If men would devote as much loving care to their whiskers as women do to their hair they would contribute greatly to increasing the dignity of the sex.

A woman wouldn't think of coming downtown without having her hair properly arranged. She combs it, and fusses with it, and pads it out with rats, and puts wire cages under it, and runs ribbons through it, and she is a vision of loveliness when she appears in the busy haunts of men.

But a man gives his whiskers no attention further than to brush the eggshells or clam chowder out of them with the shoebrush. It never seems to occur to him that his whiskers might be made beautiful if he would devote one-half the time to them that a woman gives to her hair. He might easily have made a wire cage to attach to his chin, and then he could weave his whiskers around it in captivating styles and tie the ends together with a pink or blue ribbon.

The alfalfa editor gets tired of seeing the same old fashions in whiskers when it would be so easy to devise new and striking ways of wearing them.

There should be a whiskers club in Emporia. If such an organization were formed and the members held weekly meetings to exchange ideas and compare notes the results would soon be apparent. The town's whiskers would soon become distinctive, and their reputation would cover the country.

Let us have a new deal in spinach.—Emporia Gazette.

A Deadly Weapon.

There is a horrible weapon favored by certain of the hill tribes in the Ghauts of western Asia, which consists of four sharp, curved blades hidden under the fingers and securely held in place by rings passing over two of them. With such a contrivance Shivaji, the Maratha hero, is credited with having disemboweled his Mohammedan overlord when making a pretense of rendering him his humble submission. The vagnaks ("tiger's claws"), as they are called, are distinctly more brutal than their western prototype, the "knuckle duster."—Wide World Magazine.

Its Destination.

"Here's a nickel," said a thrifty housewife to a tramp at her door. "Now, what are you going to do with it?"

"Well, mum," replied the hungry man, "if I buy a touring car I shan't have enough left to pay my chauffeur; if I purchase a steam yacht there won't be enough left to defray the cost of manning her, so I guess, mum, I'll get a schooner and handle it myself."—Everybody's Magazine.

Not an Unmixed Evil.

"Poverty has its blessings," said the philosophic friend.

"That's right," replied Mr. Suddengift. "It was annoying to be wiped out in Wall street as I was last week. But it put an immediate stop to two threatened breach of promise suits."—Washington Star.

Thoughtless Babies.

"None of my antics will stop that kid from crying."

"Too bad!"

"I should say so. Darn a baby that can't realize when it is being amused."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
